Zoetis Holds Annual Meeting of Shareholders

SHORT HILLS, N.J. – May 11, 2017 – Speaking to shareholders at the Zoetis Inc. (NYSE:ZTS) annual meeting today in Short Hills, N.J., Chief Executive Officer Juan Ramón Alaix discussed the company’s 2016 performance and strategies for continued growth as the leader in the global animal health industry.

“In 2016, we delivered our fourth consecutive year of operational revenue growth and improved profitability since becoming an independent public company,” said Alaix. “As we look to the remainder of 2017 and beyond, we have set Zoetis on a course to continue growing our industry leadership based on deep relationships with customers, highly productive innovation, and high-quality manufacturing and supply. We also remain committed to the long-term value proposition that has generated returns for our investors.”

Zoetis Chairman Michael McCallister presided over the business portion of the meeting and shareholder voting. Preliminary results of shareholder voting from the meeting are as follows:

- Gregory Norden, Louise M. Parent and Robert W. Scully have been elected as directors for three-year terms.
- Shareholders approved, on an advisory basis, the compensation of the company’s named executive officers.
- Shareholders ratified and approved the selection of KPMG LLP as the company’s independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2017.

The final results of the shareholder voting are subject to verification by the independent election inspector; results will be filed in a Form 8-K and available on the Investor section of the Zoetis website.

A full replay of the meeting will be made available at <http://investor.zoetis.com/events-presentations>, along with the presentation materials from the event.
